Ogdensburg Public Library Friends board meeting notes-6/10/26

Board discussions covered the minutes of the last meeting being approved with corrections. Correspondence was an opportunity to promote the library through a program ad. Membership showed new members being added to the friends supporting the library, old and new business was discussed regarding the August 1 library fun festival dates, games and times to be advertised soon. Continued questions regarding an outdoor book walk for the children's library with more info requested. Book store sales and book specialty sales did well in the month of May with more promotions to come. An author luncheon is being planned with a local author -William C Hall, trail historian that will be advertised soon. Treasury report was given and accepted as well as funding requests for upcoming programs such as Contradance being planned with more information coming. Next meeting will be 7/8/26